

HYDROSOLUBLE

CoQ10

What is Liquid Health™ Hydrosoluble CoQ10?

Coenzyme Q10 is a lipid soluble compound synthesized in all cells. Traditionally, CoQ10 is poorly absorbed by the body because this coenzyme is only lipid-soluble and does not dissolve easily in water. Liquid Health has developed a new 100% Hydrosoluble form of the supplement combined with synergistic natural compounds including blueberry, goji berry, and hawthorne berry extracts to improve its functionality.

What makes Hydrosoluble CoQ10 different?

Although CoQ10 is a fat soluble substance, its solubility is very limited. Typical CoQ10 products in capsule, softgel, and even some liquids are produced and sold in the fat soluble form. Several new studies confirm Hydrosoluble CoQ10 has been shown to exhibit superior dissolution and bioavailability.*

Test conducted as analysis of CoQ10 present in blood stream at different intervals. For full test data, please contact Liquid Health at 1-800-995-6607. (As presented at the American Society for Nutritional Sciences/Experimental Biology in New Orleans on April 9, 1997.)
